

Henry Peck
2990 SOUTH RIVER ROAD
SOUTH CHARLESTON, OHIO, 42621
45368-9650

JUN 21 10:20

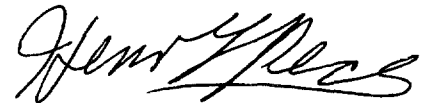

June 14, 1999

U. S. Food and Drug Administration
5600 Fishers Lane
Rockville, Maryland, 20857

Dear Sirs:

I respectfully ask that your organization ban the forced molting of hens. Feed is withheld for several days to cause the hens to produce more eggs. Not only is this inhumane, but it also increases the occurrence of the Salmonella enteritidis, a food-borne pathogen causing widespread human illness. Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Peck

98P-0203

C 1641

Mr. Henry Peck
2990 S. River Rd.
South Charleston, OH 45368

U. S. Food and Drug Administration
5600 Fishers Land
Rockville, Maryland, 20857

16.70

